Mead Lumber and Andersen Windows Donate $12,000 to Habitat for Humanity Chapters

Funds support eight communities across Nebraska and South Dakota through April sales campaign

Omaha, Nebraska, June 13, 2025 – Mead Lumber, in partnership with Andersen Windows, is proud to announce a joint donation of $12,000 to eight local Habitat for Humanity chapters. This contribution reflects one of Mead Lumber's core values, which is "Investing Where We Live", and its commitment to supporting the communities it calls home.

The donation will benefit the following Habitat for Humanity chapters:

- Black Hills Area Habitat for Humanity, Rapid City, SD
- Grand Island Area Habitat for Humanity, Grand Island, NE
- Habitat for Humanity of Greater Sioux Falls, Sioux Falls, SD
- Kearney Area Habitat for Humanity, Kearney, NE
- Habitat for Humanity of Lincoln, Lincoln, NE
- Habitat for Humanity of Columbus, NE, Inc, Columbus, NE
- Habitat for Humanity of Clay and Yankton Counties, Yankton, SD
- Habitat for Humanity of Gage County, Beatrice, NE

"At Mead Lumber, we believe in building more than just homes, we want to help build stronger communities," said Dave Anderson, President and CEO of Mead Lumber. "This donation is one way we live out our core values and support the incredible work being done by Habitat for Humanity in the towns where our customers and team members live and work."

Mead Lumber extends its sincere thanks to Andersen Windows for their partnership and shared commitment to giving back. Their involvement in the April Early Bird Sales Promotion played a key role in making this contribution a reality.

These donations will directly support Habitat for Humanity's mission to create safe, affordable housing, helping more families put down roots and thrive in the communities we all care about.
